ON THE ROAD To The Title

Central Coast v Blacktown City Demons

The Coasties defeated Blacktown at the Gabbie Stadium in the reverse fixture earlier in the season, and picked up their first point in eight games last week.

Blacktown were surprise losers to Fairfield last Friday but bounced back to beat Sutherland Sharks.

Super Soccer tip - Blacktown to at least maintain their three point lead at the top of the table after collecting maximum points here.

Bonnyrigg White Eagles v Eastern Suburbs

Bonnyrigg lost their fourth game of the season last week, but have still scored more goals than anyone else in Super League this season (40) Striker Colin Luff scored his third hat-rick of the season and took his tally to 16.

Eastern Suburbs saw their clash with Ryde City fall victim of the weather last week and the bottom club would be delighted to pick something up here.

Super Soccer tip - Home win

Bankstown City Lions v Parramatta Eagles

Pick the winner of this one! Bankstown came back from a poor run to defeat Fairfield away from home, and are the hardest team to predict in Super League.

The Eagles had a marvellous victory over Bonnyrigg last week but their away form is nothing short of abysmal.

Super Soccer tip - Parramatta to improve their poor away record and secure all three points.

Canterbury Marrickville v Fairfield Bulls

Canterbury Marrickville needed a late goal to snatch a point against the Central Sutherland's Malcolm Bideau decides to give the goalkeeper a helping hand.

Coast, and really need a win here to keep in touch with the top teams.

Fairfield sumed up the unpredictable nature of Super League by defeating Blacktown away then losing to Bankstown at home all in the same weekend, but a victory here should see them still in third place above Macarthur Rams.

Super Soccer tip - Fairfield to come away with another three points.

Ryde City v Macarthur Rams

Ryde's game with Eastern Suburbs was washed out last week when the Gunners would have looked for all three points, but they will be wary of the Rams backlash in this one.

Macarthur need all three points here, no question. After losing their last two without scoring they would have fancied an easier game than coming up against the tight Ryde defence, and may struggle to break it down.

Super Soccer tip - Macarthur - just

Leichhardt Tigers v Sutherland Sharks

The Tigers are in fifth and could even go into third if they win this one and the other results go there way. A steady start to the season has seen them starting to hit form at just the right time.

The Sharks battled hard last week against Blacktown but lost a couple of players to injury during the game. They will have to work hard to contain the Tigers strike force.

Super Soccer tip - Leichhardt to claim another three points.

Round 14 Review

Although the Eastern Suburbs and Ryde City clash at Wentworth Park was washed out due to the weather, fortunately all other games went ahead. SUPER SOCCER as always brings you the full details of the Round 14 action, plus the re-arranged Round 10 fixture between Blacktown City Demons and Fairfield Bulls.

The re-arranged Round 10 fixture between Blacktown City Demons and Fairfield Bulls at the Gabbie Stadium looked, on paper at the very least, a home banker for the Demons. Unfortunately for them though, the Bulls proved once again this game of soccer is played on grass, as putting aside the disappointment of losing 6-0 the previous week to Bonnyrigg, the Bulls took the game to the in-form Demons.

After an even first half two goals in the second period settled it. A goal just two minutes after the re-start by defender George Zabetakis got the ball rolling for the Bulls, then late in the game Demons goalkeeper Fernando Greco was adjudged to have brought down a Bulls player in the penalty area.

Not only was a penalty awarded but Greco was also sent off, meaning his ensuing suspension would rob him of his proud run of appearances which stretches back three seasons.

Matthew Borg was in no mood to sympathise though, and he netted his 12th of the season to give the Bull's great heart for the weekend involving Round 14 games.

Central Coast 1 Canterbury Marrickville 1

The Central Coast Coasties ended a dismal run of seven losses with a point against the Berries at Pluim Park - but it was so close to being three.

Leading 1-0 and being the victims of a close call when another 'goal' was disallowed, the Coasties saw their chance of victory go when Canterbury Marrickville's Zoran Ilic, a player who is really starting to catch the eye, slotted the ball home from 6 metres to level the scores.

The match, played on a rain soaked pitch, started rather slowly with both teams looking content to try and knock the ball around, but rarely threatening either goalkeeper.

After 38 minutes came the talking point of the first half. Justin Norman and Nathan Byrn combined to lay the ball back to Peter Preston, who smacked the ball home from the edge of the penalty area. Preston's celebrations were cut short though as the referee's assistant had already raised his flag, and after consultation the referee disallowed the goal. Most in the crowd presumed this was for offside, but after the game it was stated that the ball had in fact gone out of play before Preston was set up.

Preston tried to put his disappointment behind him when he shot wide just two minutes later, and the Coasties went in at 0-0 wondering what might have been.

After the interval a Marcus Steele free kick was well saved by Steve Tolios in the Berries goal, then a Terry Palapanis pile-driver hit one of his own players before sneaking past the post.

From the resulting goal kick the Coasties went back on the attack, and leading scorer Nathan Byrn's cross nearly ended up in the back of the net, instead clipping the cross bar and going to safety.

The Coasties looked the more dangerous team at this point, but Canterbury Marrickville were the team who should have made it 1-0. A quick break-away saw the ball break to Talcevski, but his close-range effort was well saved by the diving Steve Angelov in the Coasties goal.

The first goal of the game came after 68 minutes. Substitute Clint Smith combined with Byrn, who put through Preston for another effort on goal. This time the Coasties midfielder made no mistakes as he fired the ball into the bottom corner of the net, making it 1-0 to the home side.

The Berries hit back through efforts from Talcevski and George Kategiannis, before Preston was denied by Tolios.

Then came Ilic's late equaliser, leaving the Coasties fans lamenting what might have been.

Considering the heavy state of the pitch this was an entertaining match, with both teams deserving of equal praise for making it so.

Central Coast - Angelov, Demery, Drysdale, Steele, Preston, Byrn, Norman, Maltby, Sontag (McDermott), Kane (Smith), McKendrick (Binskin)

Canterbury Marrickville - Tolios, M Raeburn, Palapanis, Mendes, Percy, Talcevski, Felele, Nikas, Christoforidis, Markopoulos (Kategiannis), Ilic

GOALS - Central Coast - Preston 68' Canterbury Marrickville - Ilic 80'

Parramatta Eagles 5 Bonnyrigg White Eagles 3

Bonnyrigg's Colin Luff helped himself to yet another hat-rick in this game, but for a change found himself shadowed by a Parramatta team who have developed a formidable record at Melita Stadium.

Eagles' Coach Roberto Viera has said this season that his team struggle to score against the good teams - something that on this performance he will be glad to be wrong about.

Parramatta opened the scoring through Grant Bard, making it ten for the season for him. Parramatta's 'new boys' did the trick though, as Anthony Panzarino, Adam Anderson and Ballamobou Conde did the hard work, putting Bard through on goal. There was still work to be done though, as Bard outpaced the defence before chipping the onrushing Sasha Bozic.

Just four minutes later the Eagles were 2-0 up. Midfielder Saso Boskovski, a player of immense heart for Parramatta, stepped up and curled a free-kick around the White Eagles wall.

Bonnyrigg came close after 14 minutes when Robert Gomez delightfully back-heeled to Paul Dee, whose shot just went over the bar.

After 20 minutes though Luff got his and the White Eagles first. A Bonnyrigg free kick made its way to the striker who headed home neatly.

The Eagles though restored their two-goal cushion when Sasha Utjesenovic, who has done a good job since coming in and playing at sweeper, was released by Conde. Utjesenovic attacked his defenders before finishing to make it 3-1 to the Eagles.

Incredibly after 30 minutes it was 4-1 to the home side. Big Mark Revely won the ball just outside his own penalty area before releasing Adam Anderson.

Anderson was good enough to collect the ball before shooting easily under Bozic.

That three goal cushion though for the Eagles lasted just a minute, as Luff got his and his teams second. Once again it was the tricky Gomez, who beat two defenders before chipping across to Luff. Luff made no mistake in hammering home to make it a halftime score of 4-2 Parramatta.

Any hope of Bonnyrigg getting back into the game faded immediately after the break. Just two minutes after the re-start Adam Anderson teed up Bard, who showing all his skill cleverly curled the ball over the stranded Bozic and into the back of the net.

The eighth goal of the game came after 62 minutes. Once agin Bonnyrigg were indebted to that man Luff, who capitalised on some slack defending to smash the ball home for his third hat-rick of the season.

An entertaining match that saw quite an even game, this result will be a set-back for the White Eagles quest to repeat last year's Minor Premiership win. Parramatta though have an awesome home record, and with once again their Under 21's and Under 18's winning to both remain on top of their tables - the future looks good!

Parramatta Eagles - Holmes, Utjesenovic (Kelso), O'Grady, Revely, Boskovski (Mittiga), Bard, Islas, Panzarino, Anderson, Conde, Muzmanov (M Meilak)
Bonnyrigg White Eagles - Bozic, Racker, Dragas, Cronkrak (Warburton), Richardson, Mancino (Nikolic), Luff, Ghisso, Gomez, Green, Dee

Sutherland Sharks 0
Blacktown City Demons 2

Mark Fowler was at Seymour Shaw Field.

Blacktown bounced back from their Friday night defeat by Fairfield to secure a fully deserved 2-0 victory over the Sutherland Sharks.

The Demons missed a host of first half chances to wrap the game up, although a young Sutherland side never gave in, despite losing a couple of players with injury during the match. They also said goodbye to striker Levi Stephen, who flew back to his native Scotland on the morning of the match.

Blacktown started well, and Jon Angelucci should have made it 1-0 after just six minutes. A cross from the left wasn't properly cleared, and when the ball fell to the big no 7 he should have done better than blasting over the top from close range.

A minute later Jason Bennett had the ball in the net but the referee's assistant had ruled marginally offside, then Angelucci's cross was bravely smothered by Dennis Olla in the Sharks net.

On 15 minutes Achilleas Markopoulos fired a screamer from long range just past the post, then six minutes later Bennett could have finally made it 1-0 to the Demons, but his effort was bravely saved by Olla, both players suffering injuries in the process.

Sutherland's Craig Hobbs and Kris Karanaris win the aerial battle.

Sam Mozsny shot over for the Sharks after 26 minutes, with just a minute later Steve Riches for Blacktown emulating him.

Achilleas Markopoulos then gave us another reminder of his shooting prowess, smashing a twice-taken free kick just over, then after 28 minutes the Demons made it 1-0.

A corner curled in looked to be going out, but somehow Damien Smith kept it in play with an outrageous flick. The flick found its way to Riches, who made up for his earlier miss by blasting home.

On the stroke of half time a corner at the other end of the field caused panic in the Demons defence, and the Sharks looked to have bundled the ball very close to the line. The officials were unmoved though as the Demons hacked the ball away, and went in at half time with a one goal advantage.

The second half never reached the entertaining heights of the first period, although on the hour mark Angelucci beat two players before shooting straight at the goalkeeper. Olla had taken another nasty knock in the second period, made worse by giving his head a fearful knock on the floor, and looked groggy as he was replaced by Novaro in goal.

He had no chance with Blacktown's deserved second, scored from the unlikely source of ex-Liverpool midfielder Peter Sermanni. A clearance had seen two Sutherland defenders willing to let the ball bounce, and Angelucci's presence caused a weak clearance. The ball was returned with interest by Sermanni, who was only too keen on smacking the ball home into the top corner of the net from distance. His evident relief at scoring also seemed to confirm it was his first of the season!

Sutherland finished strongly and should have scored when Bideau somehow headed wide when it looked easier to score, then the lively Kris Karanasis, a great prospect at the age of 16, had an over head kick well saved by Simon Prior, deputising for the suspended Fernando Greco.

Fairfield Bulls 1 Bankstown City Lions 2

After crashing 6-0 at Bonnyrigg White Eagles the week before, then coming back with a fine 2-0 win over Blacktown City Demons, Fairfield could have been let off for taking this one lightly against Bankstown.

The Lions season appeared to be fizzing out, and without a coach and little to play for the seemed at long odds to defeat the Bulls on home soil.

As so often happens though in soccer, surprises happen and this time it was in the form of Mendo Lozevski, who doubled his tally for the season in scoring twice just before half time.

The Bulls started strongly but were unable to convert their chances. After 17 minutes the ball fell to Mark Hoenselaars who was unable to put the ball away, then the Bulls newcomer Michael Reda broke clear only to see his effort cleared off the line.

Bankstown came close to scoring before Hoenselaars missed another chance, but then up stepped Lozevski with his double after 40 and 44 minutes.

The Bulls got straight back into the game though in the second period through an unlikely source. Bankstown's Damien Luksic put through his own net after some neat work by Reda.

The Bulls continued to attack but some stout defensive work saw the Lions take a surprise three points and prove once again that on their day they can beat any team in the league.

Fairfield Bulls - Pupovac, Driene (Falzon), Mandic, Zabetakis, Hoenselaars, Borg, Bourke (Iocca), Giometti, Treharn, Vrankovic (Talcevski), Reda

Bankstown City Lions - Z Josevski, T Josevski, R Luksic, D Luksic, Todorovski, Lozevski, Codmani, R Issa, Abi-Arrage, Jovanou, Van Bentum

Macarthur Rams 0 Leichhardt Tigers 1

Macarthur went down to a rare home defeat as Leichhardt moved into fifth place, just two points behind their hosts for this round 14 game.

The hero for the Tigers was substitute Hassan Kdouh, who managed to not only score after coming on with les than 20 minutes to go, but also to get himeself booked!

The goal came late in the game and involved last week's five goal hero Steve Karavatakis. His shot from close range was well-saved by Rams custodian John Crawley, but the ball fell kindly to Kdouh who tucked the ball away.

There was a number of chances in the first half, Chris Lansdown shooting wide for the Tigers after just 6 minutes, then Mite Talcevski's effort was saved by Crawley after Kain Rastall's clearing header had fallen kindly to him.

Rastall then went to the other end only to be denied by Frank Mikuletic, then on 20 minutes Karavatakis played a one two with Lansdown only to be thwarted by Crawley.

Shane Rayner then chipped the ball over the bar after good work by Martin Bourke and David Reid, then the same player ballooned another chance over the bar. All this and just 23 minutes gone.

A yellow card a minute later for David Reid was marked as a mere blip by Rams fans, but on the half hour mark he received another yellow, meaning red, leaving his team to play for an hour with ten men.

In the second half Crawley saved well from Lansdown as the Tigers looked to make their superior numbers pay, and again on the hour mark he was denied by Crawley, as was Boudaher just a minute later.

On 65 minutes Eric Williams could have scored for the Rams but shot wide, and 10 minutes later an alert Mikuletic beat out a dangerous Trevor Whiddett cross.

Then came the goal by Kdouh, and while Williams headed over with just 8 minutes to go, in injury time the Rams could have snatched a point.

A short corner was headed back where Adrian Macerola shot goalwards - only to be denied by a Tigers defender on the goalline.

Macarthur Rams - Crawley, Valle, Lloyd, Willard, Bourke, Rayner (Macerola), Reid, Rastall, Knight (McDonald), Williams, Whiddett

Leichhardt Tigers - Mikuletic, Tesoro, Milicevic, Hristodoulou, Savocca, James (Kdouh), Boudaher, Landsdown, Talcevski, Karavatakis

GOALS - Leichhardt Tigers - Kdouh 78'

Postcards from NEW CALEDONIA

Soccer brings you some 'postcards' from New Caledonia from the recent trip by ew South Wales Division One Select squad.

The Squad line up at Magenta Stadium

Wish you were here! The boys doing it tough in New Caledonia

SUPER SOCCER SHORTS

Nice to see Northern Spirit's Paul Henderson watching his old club Sutherland Sharks on the weekend. The big goalkeeper is one of the Spirit fans' favourites, and it appeared he was none the worse for wear after his sides' bruising clash with Marconi Fairfield last Friday night.

Also at the same game was Leichhardt's Arno Bertogna and Macarthur Rams Casey Debruin, rival coaches just the night before.

Plenty of speculation as to which NSL players will be joining (or re-joining) Super League clubs now the NSL has finished for a lot of clubs.

Super Soccer has heard some interesting rumours and will endeavour to print them once they become slightly more than just rumours!

Good to see the Joey's (Under 17's) starting the Oceania qualifying tournament with a 2-1 victory over host nation Fiji. Even better was Mark Byrnes, the New South Wales Institute of Sport defender, received high praise from Les Scheinflug, despite giving away a penalty.

"...I would say he was best on ground, despite the fact he gave away the penalty", Scheinflug said after the game.

The Super Soccer tips in our Super League preview section is being reviewed, after the terrible performance in tipping to date! Rest assured the panel involved will be studying SS much more closely in future, and may even be named publicly in this very tome if performances don't improve!

Eastern Suburbs have suffered a blow with the news midfielder Vadim Mikoutski has flown back to Russia to care for his sick mother. The big midfielder had an immediate impact for the Wanderers and was a real stand-out in the all too short time he spent there. Super Soccer wishes him and his family all the very best.

ROUND NINE SUMMARY

ROCKDALE WIN DERBY WITH EASE AND PENRITH HIT SEVEN PAST AC UNITED

Teenage sensation Goce Trposki returned to his old club Rockdale, after a brief absence since last season while he has been playing with the Sydney United youth team.

The scorer of over 40 goals for Rockdale during his Under 18 season as a junior who has spent 9 years with the club, he was a first grade regular last term. He came off the bench on Sunday against Hurstville City Minotaurs to turn the game for his side with a hat trick inside 20 minutes, the first of his goals coming 30 seconds after taking the field.

The derby match was the game which deserved to be featured first in these pages following the wash out of the St George-Manly-Warringah game next door. No such problems at Rockdale where the pitch was in fine fettle.

The Hurstville side looked dangerous throughout the game, but conceded a goal against the run of play in the 25th minute when another teenager, Bill Petrovski, drilled the ball past George Beardmore after Andrew McHardy had nodded down a cross from Peter Apolevski. 14 minutes later Hurstville were level again when Nick Knithakis volleyed in from close range after the defence failed to clear a cross effectively.

Spase Najdoski had a shot blocked in the 66th minute and substitute Trposki immediately snatched his chance to put his side ahead once more.

When Hurstville defenders failed to make a headed clearance count in the 82nd there was Trposki to win the ball in the air and slot home from a tricky angle. A glancing header from another Najdoski cross completed the scoring for the side coached by Gerry Gomez, for a 4-1 win, only their third of the season.

At Arlington Oval the game between Stanmore and Illawarra began with the Lions creating their first chance in the 3rd minute when Robert Mihailov received the ball from the midfield and sent a strong shot goalwards only for Paul Kyprianou to make a superb save. Two minutes later Stanmore had their first chance when Nick Bolianitis provided a long ball to Socrates Bakafoukas who fired just wide.

In the 10th minute Stanmore were rewarded when they managed to win the ball in the midfield, it was passed to Bakafoukas whose fierce shot was pushed away by the keeper, and Con Paradisis following up drove home the rebound.

After the first goal had been scored the game became very physical and neither team was able to create chances.

The second half began with Stanmore rarely able to get out of their own half and with Illawarra creating numerous chances and placing the Stanmore defence under considerable pressure.

In the 67th minute Peter Kypreos received the ball wide on the right flank, putting in a cross that found Malcolm Adams whose header cleared the bar.

In the 75th minute Stanmore again had a great chance to get further ahead when Theo Katsaros passed a well timed ball to Kypreos on the right flank, the latter took on two players in the box and had a strong shot on target, but it was very well saved by the Illawarra keeper. Stanmore continued to attack but were unable to convert the chances that fell to them.

In the 80th minute Michael Stojanovski received his second yellow card reducing the Illawarra team to 10 players, which only served to inspire Illawarra still further and they were awarded a corner which was taken quickly and found Marshall Soper, who was able to head past Kyprianou.

In time added on, the Lions' Damien Counter won the ball in the midfield, then taking on the Stanmore defence, and confronting the exposed Kyprianou who came out to deny him, but Counter was able to lay the ball in the path of Jim Melissourgos whose well placed shot brought up a thrilling winner for the visitors.

Auburn returned to winning form at Mona Park with an emphatic 3-1 win over Dulwich Hill. It was significant that their top scorer Huseyin Bayhan was back in the side after a recent suspension and he helped himself to two of the goals.

Dulwich began well and opened the scoring when Luis Pereira steered the ball in off the post, following a corner which the keeper failed to claim.

Bayhan was running into top gear and had one special effort saved well by Peter Trajcevski early on.

Auburn's Taner Omac was given his marching orders after a late tackle and an earlier incident of dissent.

It was an hour into the game before Auburn was even able to draw level, Bayhan heading into the top left corner with the keeper beaten. Two minutes later the keeper saved another Bayhan shot, but could do little to prevent another header from the same player beating him closer to the ground in the 68th.

Shots from Dulwich players were well dealt with by Auburn keeper Haydar Arslan but at the other end it needed a defender to clear an Erkan Demir shot off the Dulwich line.

Alan Gordon finally made certain with a low drive in the 87th minute for a solid win at the finish.

Moorebank Sports did well to pick up a home point against the strong Bathurst side. It was only their second point of the season, but the signs are definitely there that the team is on the improve.

Dulwich began well and opened the scoring when Luis Pereira steered the ball in off the post, following a corner which the keeper failed to claim.

Mark Rooke got the better of a defence caught square in the 21st minute to give visitors Bathurst the lead, but a determined effort by Moorebank saw them draw level in the 47th through Mike Necevski who was able to steer in a Sasha Djuric cross from the left.

Captain Peter Moon was once again in great form and inspired his side to collect the valuable point.

Penrith Panthers got a couple of early goals against A C United and never looked back at Nepean Rugby Park. They eventually went on to win 7-1, with Danny Hinton

From a cross supplied by Tim O'Connell Hinton was able to slot home and open the scoring in the 4th minute and it was only 11 minutes later that the same player made it two.

Bob Casserly, Richard Astone and Hinton exchanged passes as they advanced on goal with Hinton the man to finish it all off.

Garth Tehliwec provided the cross from the left for Daniel Lownds to shoost-raight past the keeper to make it five in the 75th after Hinton had notched his hat trick in the 68th from a ball that had run loose after a Brad Collier shot had been beaten away.

Tehliwec also provided the cross that allowed Kaan Davies to make it 7-1 in the 86th. In between the last two Panthers'

Hurstville City are still a good side at home and they will probably expect another big win at the expense of Moorebank on Sunday. Moorebank might spring a surprise though.

Vladan Radic handled inside the area almost on half time and Casserly stroked home a penalty to make it 3-0. More importantly, AC defender Radic was sent off for deliberately handling the ball.

Down to ten men A C found themselves further behind when Steve Sweeney's in-swinging corner from the right went straight into the net in the 58th minute.

When Dominic Oliverio was also sent off in the 61st, this time for an unfair tackle on Chris Ackerley, A C United were in goals Fabio Screpis got the ball in the net for the visitors from a shot that deflected as it beat the keeper.

ROUND TEN PREVIEW

There is a Saturday game in Sydney at Abruzzi Oval, the Wetherill Park headquarters of A C United, with St George providing the opposition. This is likely to be a tough encounter and AC could emerge with at least a share of the points, though their scorers have been few and far between so far this term.

Illawarra Lions tackle Auburn United on Saturday as well and the South Coast side has been a little on the enigmatic side so far but can produce some excellent form when in the right mood.

Manly Warringah will not want to take Stanmore took lightly after finding their opponents very tough customers in the past. The lack of recent match practice could also be against Manly who had once rained off and another called off due to the New Caledonia tour.

After their loss to Illawarra the Hawks will be looking for some more points again, but Manly are likely to be a bit too strong for them this time.

Dulwich Hill face a confident Rockdale Suns at Arlington Oval in a game which is sure to provide some great attacking football. On current form Rockdale should win, but they have had some horror matches this year and if they do so again Dulwich will take full toll.

Hurstville City are still a good side at home and they will probably expect another big win at the expense of Moorebank on Sunday. Moorebank might spring a surprise though.

Penrith Panthers look set to storm past Bathurst in the 5pm game switched to Cook Park St Marys. Despite playing on Wednesday at Moorebank the Panthers are very fit and should have enough left in the tank to put Bathurst out of business.

ROUND EIGHT SUMMARY

HURSTVILLE ON A ROLL AND GREYSTANES WIN AT LAST, AS STUDENTS HIT FIVE

It rained for most of the day in central Sydney on Saturday, but that did not dampen the spirits of the students from Sydney University who entertained Sydney District at St Paul's College Oval.

Both teams willingly ploughed through the mud and slush after referee Craig Pearce decided to go ahead with the fixture despite constant showers during the afternoon which had made conditions close to unplayable.

Rob Smithies scored three, but should have had double figures, only the heroics and sound positioning of District keeper Leo Espinosa denying him as the home side ran out comfortable 5-0 winners.

Smithies was aided by the creative work of Chris Bowman, David Gill and Shaun Herat, while his partner Luke McDougal might have had a couple of goals too were it not for the clever keeper.

There was also a very good performance from second half Uni substitute, 16 year old Peter Giurissevich, who set up Smithies and McDougal for chances and then scored the fifth himself after the industrious David Gill had headed in a Bowman corner late in the game.

It began with a Smithies goal in the 29th after the same player had earlier tried to shoot past a well-positioned keeper and steering the ball wide.

This time he went around the custodian and effectively walked the ball into the net.

Herat took on three defenders successfully in the next few minutes, but also was off target.

David Gill was on his game and delivered the shot from the left flank that was parried by the keeper to the feet of Smithies for goal number two in the 57th.

After Smithies had been denied again Giurissevich took advantage of an excellent through ball by Gill to go on and score with a very cool finish in the 78th.

Espinosa took one step too far in claiming a ball being chased by Smithies in the 88th and though Luke McDougall put away the loose ball, a free kick had already been awarded and the keeper was red carded.

From an ensuing corner by Chris Bowman, the always effective Gill rose high to nod the ball past substitute keeper Cristian Sanjuan, which goal was fitting reward for the long time Uni schemer who was once again one of the best players on the park.

Smithies completed his hat trick in the last minute from a nice pass by Giurissevich.

Alex Aravena hit the bar for District, but while they battled on, the visitors were never likely winners at any stage in conditions which the Sydney University players adapted to best.

On Sunday Hills United made the journey to Popondetta Park to play Mt. Druitt with ambitions of taking away all three points after a series of recent postponements. That they did not was due to a late penalty awarded to the home side and put away by Craig Noble, leaving them with just a point for their trouble.

The match started slowly with Hills having a couple of early chances through Tim Gledhill and Ashley Mathieson, which were not taken and in the 24 minute Mt Druitt took the lead from a free kick outside the penalty area which former Hills player Steve Vanega slotted away nicely.

With the Town Rangers still leading 1-0 at half time Hills' coach Fred Mesiti gave his boys a good pep talk and they lifted their game, proceeding to dominate the second half.

Mesiti later threw on substitute Steve Butcher, who eventually produced one of those famous Butcher volleys to bring the scores level and when 2 minutes later, after a tenacious tackle by Vaughan Profilio in the middle of the park had won Hills' the ball, it was fed to the prolific Tim Gledhill to score and put the visitors ahead.

A disputed penalty given by the referee in the 85th minute allowed Mt. Druitt to equalise, with Craig Noble scoring nicely for a point apiece.

After this setback Hills almost regained the lead when a cracking right foot shot by Francois Finianos brought out a top class save from the Mt. Druitt keeper, but the home side hung on for their vital point.

Arncliffe continued their strong home form with another win, this time a 3-1 success at the expense of Uni of NSW. Zlatko Nastevski got on the end of a move begun by a cross from Bill Pilovski and a ball cut back by Mike Grbevski saw the former Socceroo slot home in the 20th minute.

Clinging to their lead, the locals could not stop Uni equalising in the 75th from a shot by Jonathan Dmoch, but retaining their composure Arncliffe got their noses in front again five minutes later when a through ball by Pilovski allowed Grbevski to go on and beat the keeper. Robert Todorovski got the third in the 85th with a ball pushed on by Louis Klimovski getting him in behind the defence.

Hurstville ZSC continued their recent run by defeating Mount Pritchard at Cook Park where the surface allowed them to push the ball around easily. Franco Cosentino was again prominent in the Mounties midfield and his probing allowed Brett Smyth to hit a fierce drive in the 37th that the keeper could not hold and Clinton Green put away the rebound.

Two minutes later, however, Gary Deprato put Hurstville level again, but Mounties were in top gear again soon after. They had a shot from Cosentino that rolled along the crossbar in the 54th, but it was the visitors who hit the front in the 78th from a Tom Milicevic header, though later both Steve Milicevic and his scoring brother were sent off and on the day it was Hurstville keeper Tom Miletic who was at his best to deny a hard working Mount Pritchard side.

Greystanes faced an under-strength Belmore at Blick Oval and broke through for their first win with a goal in each half. Gary Comerford put them ahead in the 21st from a free kick and a header from Brendan Wilson clinched the 2-0 win for them.

ROUND NINE PREVIEW

Once again the weekend begins with the Sydney University side at home, this time Mount Druitt providing the big test for the students. Uni coach Jim Gallacher would have had a good look at the visitors last Sunday and will know all about their fighting qualities. It is a game that looks all over a draw, while the game at Camdenville Oval the same day could be a similar story when Sydney District take on University of NSW.

Greystanes, buoyed by their first win at Blick Oval last weekend, will hope to carry on with the job against Mount Pritchard at Bathurst Street Park in the first of the Sunday fixtures, but Mounties are among the leading sides in the division and should return to the winners' list.

Hills United meets Fraser Park at Fred Caterson after a Tuesday game against Hurstville, two very tough assignments indeed. With the right breaks there is no reason why Hills cannot win both, but their visitors will still start hot favourites in both matches.

Arncliffe Scots are at home once more, this time in the derby against Hurstville ZSC, which should be an excellent game of football that is impossible to predict. Obviously a draw is the best option for the pundits.

Hajduk Wanderers should get back on track with a straightforward home win over Belmore at Hajduk Stadium.

SUPER YOUTH LEAGUE

Round 11 review

Despite the poor weather on the weekend only two games were washed out. The games were the Sydney Olympic and Parramatta Eagles clash, plus the Wollongong Wolves and Marconi Fairfield game.

Grade 13's

Blacktown City Demons remain top of the table after defeating Gladesville Hornsby 3-0. The Demons look the goods at the top of the table and are unbeaten, conceding just four goals.

Newcastle took advantage of Wollongong not playing by defeating the Southern Districts side 1-0 to move into second ahead of the Wolves, while fourth placed Parramatta Eagles also were left twiddling their thumbs.

In fifth now are the Leichhardt Tigers, who took all three points with a close 1-0 win at Manly Warringah Dolphins, while at the bottom Eastern Suburbs remain winless, despite just going down 2-1 at home to Sutherland Sharks.

Macarthur Rams have now drawn six of their eleven games after a 1-1 draw at home to the Central Coast, a good result for the Coasties giving them their fourth point of the season.

Sydney United were another team to pick up a point, drawing 1-1 at home to the Southern Branch.That result leaves both teams near the bottom of the table on five and eight points respectively.

Grade 14's

Wollongong remain in pole position in the division despite their game being washed out, but Southern Districts missed the chance to take that spot after going down 3-2 at home to the Newcastle Breakers.

Sydney United went above Sydney Olympic after Olympic's game was also washed out, Sydney United disposing of Southern Branch 5-2.

Eastern Suburbs did well to hold Sutherland Sharks 1-1 at Hensley Athletic Field, while Leichhardt secured their fourth win of the season by beating Manly Warringah Dolphins 3-0.

The Gladesville Hornsby Association moved up one place into fifth after beating Blacktown City 1-0, while Macarthur Rams defeated the Central Coast by the same scoreline.

Grade 15's

With second placed Marconi Fairfield not playing, first entertained third at Christie Park as Gladesville Hornsby Association played Blacktown City. It was the Demon's who took the points and the top spot from their hosts though, as a 1-0 victory opened up a two point gap for Blacktown.

Souther Districts remain fourth after drawing at home to Newcastle Breakers 1-1, with Wollongong sixth and Sydney Olympic seventh after both their games were washed out.

In fourth though are Sutherland, as the Sharks hammered Eastern Suburbs 7-0 to leapfrog the two inactive clubs above them.

Just one point seperated Manly Warringah Dolphins and Leichhardt Tigers before play, but the Tigers extended that to four with a good 3-1 away victory.

Sydney United defeated the Southern Branch by the same scoreline, while the Central Coast Grade 15's made it 10 points for the season for them, winning 1-0 at Macarthur.

Grade 16's

New leaders in the Grade 16's are Newcastle Breakers, who took advantage of Sydney Olympics inactivity by defeating the Southern Districts 5-1.

The Leichhardt Tigers maintained the pressure on the top two by defeating Manly Warringah Dolphins 2-0, while there was a high-scoring match between Eastern Suburbs and the Sutherland Sharks, with the Sharks winning 7-3.

Blacktown City Demons sit in fourth place on the ladder after a good 1-0 away win at Gladesville Hornsby, while the Macarthur Rams picked up their second win of the season in defeating the Central Coast 3-0.

Sydney United are fifth after they defeated Southern Branch 2-0, with the Southern Branch bottom of the table after playing eleven games.

Division One Youth League

Round 9 review

It was a miserable weekend in Division One with all grades of the Canterbury Marrickville - Hills United game, Bansktown Association and Fairfield Bulls game, St George and Illawara Lions, plus the Canterbury Association and Penrith Panthers games all being washed out. In addition the Grade 11's game of the AC United and Blacktown Association game was played before the other grades were washed out.

The only game on the Saturday played in full was the Stanmore Hawks and Rockdale City Suns clash.

Sunday thankfully brought us two more games, as the imrpved weather enabled the games to go ahead.

Grade 13's

There was just one point separating the AC United and Blacktown Association teams before play, with Blacktown just ahead on the ladder. AC United though soon put that right, and in winning 3-1 continued their fine start to the season.

The win proved important as the day's other game saw Rockdale City Suns move to 15 points after beating Stanmore Hawks 1-0 at Pratten Park. Sunday saw Ryde City and Bonnyrigg White Eagles share a 2-2 draw, Hills United going above Bonnyrigg after securing a 2-0 home win over Canterbury Association.

Grade 14's

Stanmore Hawks took advantage of the other teams inactivity by defeating Rockdale City 3-1, and move onto 13 points.

At the top of the table Ryde City opened up a 4 point gap after defeating Bonnyrigg 4-2, while Hills United jumped over a cluster of clubs to move to 10 points after defeating Canterbury Association 3-0.

Grade 15's

Stanmore moved to within a point of Saturday leaders AC United by defeating Rockdale City Suns 3-1.

Hills United moved into third after defeating Canterbury Association 4-1, while Ryde City picked up another three points by defeating Bonnyrigg White Eagles 3-1.

Grade 16's

Rockdale City Suns G16's emulated the G13's by defeating Stanmore 1-0. The win puts Rockdale on 11 points and keeps Stanmore on 13.

Canterbury Association moved above Hills United after defeating their hosts 2-0 at Fred Caterson Reserve, but Ryde City were the big movers, shooting up to third after their 2-0 defeat of Bonnyrigg.

Round 10 action

all matches to be played Saturday May 8

Division Two Youth League

Round 6

Grade 13's

When the top two clashed at Hajduk Stadium, a close game was always on the cards. It proved to be so as Hajduk Wanderers and Ku-ring-gai Association drew 0-0, a result which saw the away team keep their position at the top of the table and saw the home side drop down two places.

The teams that took advantage of Hajduk claming a draw were Nepean Association and Macquarie Sports.

The Nepean Association took full advantage by hammering Moorebank Sports 8-0, while it was tougher for Macquarie Sports, who just edged out Hawkesbury City 1-0 at Bensons Lane.

Mt Druitt Town and CSI Schofields fought out a 0-0 draw at Popondetta Park, while Mt Pritchard ensured Parramatta City were unable to collect their first point of the season, Mt Prictchard winning 5-1.

The day's other game saw Granville Association edge out Camden Tigers 1-0.

Grade 14's

Its as you were for the top three in the Grade 14's, with Hajduk Wanderers, Macquarie Sports and CSI Schofields all maintaining their spots.

This is despite Hajduk Wanderers losing their undefeated tag in a 4-1 home defeat by Ku-ring-gai Association, a result which sees their three point lead at the top of the table vanish.

Macquarie Sports were in not such a charitable mood, defeating Hawkesbury City 2-1, and CSI Schofields moved to within a point of the top two after defeating Mt Druitt away from home.

The Nepean Association moved into fifth behind Ku-ring-gai after beating bottom club Moorebank Sports 5-0, while in drawing 1-1 with Granville Association the Camden Tigers amazingley made it four draws out of six games.

Mt Pritchrd have drawn three of their six games, and picked up their second win of the season by defeating Parramatta City 1-0.

Grade 15's

The battle of the top two provided a 2-2 draw and the chance for third place Hajduk Wanderers to leap-frog both into top spot.

Mt Pricthard and Parramatta City were the top two going into round 6, but their draw at Cook Park saw Hajduk Wanderers take over the leadership of the division. It wasn't easy for Hajduk either though, as they just pipped Ku-ring-gai Association 2-1 at Hajduk Stadium.

Granville Association picked up their first points of the season in a thrilling 5-4 defeat of Camden Tigers, but Moorebank Sports 2-2 draw with the Nepean Association means Granville remains bottom of the table.

Macquarie Sports were too strong for Hawkesbury City, picking up a 3-1 away win and CSI Schofields were also victors away from home, defeating Mt Druitt 3-2.

Grade 16's

Its six out of six for the Nepean Association, who have a five point advantage after defeating Moorebank Sports 8-0. Nepean have only conceded two goal in their six games so far, and already look as if they make take some catching.

Mt Druitt Town and the Camden Tigers are next on the ladder both with 13 points, although the Tigers were held to a 0-0 draw with the Granville Association. No such worries for Mt Druitt though, as they proved too strong for CSI Schofield's, winning 3-1.

Middle of the table Mt Pritchard and Parramatta City drew 3-3 and Hajduk Wanderers are in fourth spot after downing Ku-ring-gai Association 2-0.

The day's other game saw Macquarie Sports prove too strong for Hawkesbury City, Macquarie winning 2-0.

Round 7 action

Nepean Association v Mt Druitt Town Cook Park St Mary's
Macquarie Sports v Moorebank Sports Northlakes Oval
Granville Association v Hawkesbury City Garside Park
Camden Tigers v Mt Pritchard Ron Dine Reserve
CSI Schofields v Hajduk Wanderers CSI Ground
Parramatta City v Ku-ring-gai Association Eric Primrose Park
all matches to be played Saturday May 8

Cadet League Division One

Round 7 Review

It was a quiet weekend in the Cadet League First Division, as due to the wet weather the games between Eastern Suburbs and Ryde City, and St George and Canterbury Marrickville were washed out.

With Marconi Fairfield having the bye this weekend, it meant there was only three games played.

Grade 11's

Leaders St George and Canterbury Marrickville, second and first respectively, should have played but were washed out, so Sydney United stepped up and defeated Parramatta City 6-0.

The win put United a point clear at the top of the table, while Macarthur Rams moved into fourth place after their 2-0 defeat of Leichhardt Tigers.

The day's other game saw Parramatta Eagles and Bonnyrigg White Eagles both start the day on three points, but it was the Eagles who picked up their first win of the season in winning 2-0.

Grade 12's

There was just two games played in the Grade 12's in Round 7. The top three is as you were with Sydney United now four points clear after their 3-0 home win over Parramatta City, while Parramatta Eagles and St George remain second and third.

Macarthur Rams moved into fourth spot after picking up a 1-1 home draw with Leichhardt Tigers, although a win here would have seen them move into third on 12 points.

Ryde's washed out game against Eastern Suburbs prevented them from the chance of looking for their first points of the season.

Cadet League Division Two

Round 9 review

Grade 11's

The top three remain the same after Round 9 action. Unlike Division One where many of the games were washed out, Division Two saw a full round of games being played.

The Illawara Lions remain top after a tough 1-0 away win at Stanmore Hawks, and their lead has now increased to two points as Hills United could only draw 1-1 away at Hajduk Wanderers.

Penrith Panthers are in third despite losing 2-0 at home to Macquarie Sports, while AC United moved into fourth with a 4-2 win at Hawkesbury City.

Something had to give at Hammondville Park as Moorebank Sports and Mt Druitt Town were both without a win, and it was the home club Moorebank who secured the three points with a 3-0 victory.

The day's other game saw CSI Schofields and Mt Pritchard draw 1-1, to leave them on five and seven points respectively.

Grade 12's

Its also as you were with the Grade 12's, and like the Grade 11's the top three is unaltered after Round 9.

Hills United remain top despite being surprisingly held to a 1-1 draw by Hajduk Wanderers, but second placed AC United also drew, 2-2 at Hawkesbury City.

Stanmore Hawks had the chance therefore to close the gap at the top but they too drew, 0-0 at home to the Illawara Lions.

This means a number of chasing teams have closed the gap on the top three, meaning a more congested league table.

Penrith Panthers were one of those teams to close the gap, winning 1-0 at home to Macquarie Sports, and CSI Schofields moved to 16 points with a 4-2 victory over Mt Pritchard.

Moorebank Sports remain winless after losing 1-0 to Mt Druitt, who claimed their third win in eight games.
